

OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCIES

Atlanta Customs Brokers works closely with other government agencies to help clear your shipments. Some of these agencies are listed below:

| | |
|--|--|
| Food and Drug Administration: | Regulates Foods, drugs, cosmetics, medical devices among others |
| United States Department of Agriculture: | Regulates certain food items, plants, soil products among others |
| Fish and Wildlife: | Regulates the import of animal, and animal products among others |
| Center for Disease Control: | Regulates import of potential disease threats among others |
| Department of Transportation: | Regulates the import of vehicles/ vehicle related items among others |
| Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms: | Regulates the import of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms among others |

These are only a few of the agencies we deal with on a daily basis in conjunction with U.S. Customs to help clear import shipments. We have vast experience on regular to obscure imports regulated by these agencies and any information we don't know we have direct contacts with these agencies to help you answer any questions regarding providing the proper paperwork for release of your shipment.

We work closely with the importer to guide you regarding the rules and regulations of not only Customs but these government agencies that may have restrictions or regulations that can affect your commodity.

Ask us today about your commodity!

This sheet is strictly for informational purposes. All shipments are unique and further documentation and extra fees may be associated with your shipment. Please contact us with any questions.